4. Participation guidelines

The underlying theme of the Challenge is Sustainability.

The debate on the relationship between spaces and their surroundings, the choice of materials and construction solutions, as well as the decision-making regarding the areas, or the natural setting, including energy efficiency, self-sustainability and the concern for the environment is, today, absolutely central and emergent.

The insight and creativity revealed in a project, as well as the search for balance between these vectors of sustainability, is where we look for innovation that is affirmative and purposeful.

Revigrés and Archi Summit ask the participants to carry out an intervention project in an existing space from an innovative perspective that makes a real and visible impact, integrating Revigrés brand products and materials in the project. Sustainability will always be the starting point for the creative process, but also the point of arrival for the decision-making regarding products and finishes. The spaces chosen for the project may be public and/or residential.

The project must outline:

A) The physical space of the project

a.) A place to be renovated (e.g. house, restaurant, shop, showroom or other commercial establishment) must be presented through photographs/images of the space;

B) The project history

a.) The history of the project should be presented through a descriptive document, using a creative narrative that breaks down the objectives of the project and the responses obtained from the ceramics chosen to carry out the renovation of the space;

C) The products and features

- a.) The suitability of the materials to the type of use of the space and the reason for this choice.
- b.) The presentation of suggestions will be valued for application in residential divisions - where, traditionally, ceramic products are not the first option (i.e., bedrooms and sitting rooms) - and in public spaces (shops, restaurants and other commercial spaces).

D) The tools

a.) The type of tools used to develop the project - 3D, BIM, AR, among others, whether a part of the toolset made available by Revigrés at www.revigres.pt or not - and that helped to materialise the project.

E) Sustainability

a.) The good practices in the field of environmental sustainability implemented throughout the project and the contribution made by the products and tools used for this purpose.

5. Challenge Objective

The aim of the Challenge is to demonstrate how the choice of ceramic tiles and floors makes a positive contribution to the quality of the environment, to the quality of life of the users, to extending the life cycle of buildings and, consequently, to the decarbonisation of cities.
